

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS19114

Idaho Code section 41-1830 is an old section of the insurance code that made life insurance payable for the benefit of a married woman the separate property of the woman. In 2009, the Idaho Supreme Court ruled, in the case of Banner Life Insurance Co. v. Mark Wallace Dixson Irrevocable Trust, 147 Idaho 117, that this section of law is unconstitutional. This proposal would repeal this section of law because the Supreme Court decision has rendered it without effect.

FISCAL NOTE

No fiscal impact.

Contact:

Name: Shad Priest

Office: Department of Insurance

Phone: (208) 334-4214